2-22-1961

"The Arabs Between East and West"

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/294

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlange1@udayton.edu.
Dr. Fawzi Abu-Diab, director of the Arab Information Center in Chicago, will speak on "The Arabs Between East and West" at a lecture program sponsored by University of Dayton's International Club.

He will speak on Friday, Feb. 24, in Wohlleben Hall auditorium, at 7:30 p.m.

Previous announcements of the program were erroneous.

A limited number of tickets are available from the council. Tickets should be obtained to assure seating, or reserved by calling the council.

Dayton area high school students are being invited to the University of Dayton campus Thursday evening as a part of UD students' observance of Engineer's Week.

The high schoolers will be given guided tours of a number of exhibits in the mechanical engineering laboratory and at 8 p.m. will hear an address by Robert A. Jenkins, division traffic manager of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. He'll speak on "Engineering: A Career of Opportunity."

The tours begin at 7 p.m. Thursday.