DAYTON, O., June 9. --Sister Mary Pierre of the Sisters of Mercy, North Plainfield, N.J., and chairman of the department of modern languages at Georgian Court College, Lakewood, N.J., this morning was awarded the University of Dayton's ninth annual Marian Library Medal.

She received the award for her recent book, Mary Was Her Life, as the 1961 Marian Institute opened on the campus. The medal goes each year to the author of the previous year's outstanding book on the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The award-winning book is a biography of Sister Maria Teresa Quevedo of the Carmelite Sisters of Charity in Spain. Sister Pierre first became acquainted with her story while studying for her doctorate at the University of Madrid. The book was published by Benziger Brothers.
