The University of Dayton's 21 new foreign students—who have come to the United States from 16 different countries—will be welcomed and introduced to the public at an International Tea on the campus Sunday (Oct. 1).

The tea, to which the public is invited, will be given in the home economics reception rooms in Sherman Hall from 3 to 6 p.m. It is being sponsored by the International Club and the Home Economics Club, with Eileen Crowley, Joanne Simonton, and Virginia Beatty as co-chairmen.

The 21 new members of the foreign student set at the University brings the total number of "foreign guests" on the campus to 68. Twenty nine countries are represented.
