- Dean of Law and Dean of College of Arts and Science Searches: P. Benson announced that the search committee membership for both searches had been determined and will be announced in the near future. Each committee will have 7 faculty members with one of those faculty members serving as the chair of the committee as well as 5 members from outside the unit faculty. P. Benson reiterated that the ECAS/UNRC process to gather nominations worked well. He acknowledged that in a few cases, the nomination pool did not include all the desired dimensions of diversity which necessitated expanding beyond the lists provided by ECAS. Sue Trollinger will chair the search committee for the Dean of the College with Kathy Webb representing ECAS on the committee. Jim Durham will chair the search committee for the Dean of the Law School with Harry Gerla representing ECAS on the committee. The representatives from IsaacsCon, Miller will be on campus in the near future to gather data and consult with constituents about the searches. It was acknowledged that there were a few faculty who were not satisfied with the process used to solicit nominations. However, most feedback received was positive. H. Gerla stated that the overwhelming consensus from Law faculty was that the ECAS/UNRC process worked well. J. Dunne asked about the timetable for a Provost search. P. Benson stated that his contract as Interim Provost was for two years to provide some stability given the two dean searches. The timing of a search for a new Provost is President Curran’s decision.

Old Business:
No old business was discussed.

New Business:
CAP-C Membership: C. Krane initiated a lively discussion about the process to appoint faculty to the CAP-C and maintain the mandated Senate representation. The process is proving to be very complicated and needs to be clarified. ECAS approved a membership recommendation from Interim Dean Jason Pierce and C. Krane will forward the recommendation to Sawyer Hunley, Assistant Provost for CAP.

Senate Parliamentarian Appointment Process: A draft document outlining the responsibilities of the Senate Parliamentarian such as attendance at all Senate meetings, including special meetings of the Senate was discussed. The Senate Parliamentarian is a non-voting position. A motion was approved to accept the document with revisions. The proposed process will be on the September 19th Academic Senate agenda.

Academic Scheduling Task Force: L. Hartley and P. Anloague (co-chairs) reported that the task force membership has been finalized to include Patsy Martin, Paul Vanderburgh, Trisha Hart, and Lindsay Elrod. The meeting schedule has not been finalized yet. The plan is to meet every other week and bring in representatives from facilities and public safety as needed. P. Benson noted that there had not been any reports of problems during the first two days of classes and that the chapel renovations are generating more complaints at this point. Three elevators will be operational by 7:30 am to accommodate the increased student/faculty/staff population. An additional elevator is being renovated, but there is no timeline for completion yet. L. Hartley stated that there are unique issues for students in music and the arts. The task force is charged with accessing needs, studying the data, and making recommendations for possible solutions.

ECAS Representation on University Committees: C. Krane announced that P. Anloague will be the new ECAS representative on the Human Resources Advisory Council (HRAC). After some discussion, it was decided that the FAC will review the documentation for the UNRC and the Elections Committee to determine the membership guidelines. E. Hicks will continue as chair of the UNRC and a member of the Elections Committee until FAC has finished its review.

Review of Action Items for each of the Standing Committees based on 2013-2014 year-end reports: C. Krane briefly reviewed the following action items for the standing committees and requested clarification on several items to determine where an issue was in the process.

SAPC: Academic and Disciplinary Probation/Suspension and Education Abroad
- Student Political/Electoral Activities Policy
- Dismissal for Academic Dishonesty (Note: Paul Benson will review notes from April 2014 Dean’s Council meeting at which this policy was discussed)
- Anti-discrimination policy

APC: University Policy for Academic Certificate Programs.
- CAP (common academic program) and the CAP committee (APC subcommittee.) Membership, planning for 2 year evaluation.

FAC: Review documentation for the UNRC and Elections Committee to determine membership guidelines—specifically regarding ECAS membership requirement.
- Instructional staff titles: Clinical faculty
- Anti-discrimination policy

ECAS: Revisions to the Academic Senate Constitution
- Review of Administrators
- Information Literacy
- Academic Scheduling Task Force

The meeting was adjourned at 10:35 A.M.

Respectfully submitted by Emily Hicks
