

The Glass Walls Project

William Sember

Dr. Peter Powers, Physics

Abstract

The Glass Walls Project is a computer-based, 3D visualization of laboratories. It allows researchers to create basic 3D visualizations of their labs—including media content such as pictures—to communicate the lab's equipment and current projects. This demonstration is a prototype; the full project would include web-hosting for easy data transfer.

The Glass Walls Project

Dr. Peter Powers
powers@udayton.edu
non-linear optics lab

Lab setup

Panorama detail

Professor widget