"Mary and the Ecumenical Movement" will be the theme of the 10th annual Marian Institute to be held at the University of Dayton's Marian Library Friday and Saturday (June 8 and 9).

Developing that theme will be a number of speakers. They include Dale Francis of Troy; Lonnie Bell of Springfield; Sister St. Thomas of Mount Notre Dame, Reading; Father Thomas A. Stanley and Father John J. Kelley of the U.D. faculty; and Irwin St. John Tucker of Chicago.

Presentation of the 10th annual Marian Library Medal will take place Friday at 9:15 a.m. as the institute gets under way. This medal is given each year to the author of the year's best book on the Blessed Virgin, written in English and published in the United States.

Making the presentation will be Father Philip C. Hoelle, director of the library and chairman for the institute.

NOTE: Marian Library Medal is not to be confused with UD's annual Marianist Award.
