DAYTON, O.  --The 10th annual Marian Library Medal was awarded here June 8 to the Rev. Marion A. Habig, O.F.M., of Chicago, editor of The Marian Era, "The World Annual of the Queen of the Universe."

The award was presented at the opening session of the 10th annual Marian Institute of the University of Dayton's Marian Library. Theme of this year's institute was "Mary and the Ecumenical Movement."

Father Habig, a prolific author and historian, was given the award for the 1961 edition (Vol. 2) of the yearbook as the "best book on Mary, written in English and published in the United States."

Presenting the award was Father Philip C. Hoelle, S.M., director of the Marian Library.
