Thirty-Seven Daytonians Achieve Perfect Academic Record During Their Second Semester at The University of Dayton
DAYTON

--Thirty-seven Daytonians are among 51 University of Dayton students who had perfect academic records in the second semester of the recently completed 1961-62 school year.

Dean of the University Father Thomas A. Stanley said those receiving all A's for perfect 4.0 averages during the semester included the following Daytonians:

College of Arts and Sciences--Donald L. Galloway; Robert S. Eisenhauer, S.M.; Robert Fachet, S.M.; Michael J. Galvin, S.M.; Thomas J. Grilliot; John Kane; Jerome Kaplan; Robert W. Lipp; Carol L. Lohman; William Losito, S.M.; Mary R. Mattingly; Richard B. Reiling; Marcella A. Sakalas; Robert Schult, S.M.; Lucy E. Seiver; Alan J. Stevens; Michael B. Van Auken; Ronald J. Versic; Robert Wiethorn, S.M.; Robert G. Willis;

School of Business Administration--David M. Snyder;

School of Education--Carlotta S. Ashburn; Sr. Marce Brinkpeter; Roland D. Griesmeyer; Sr. Vincent Hoffman; Janet E. Kunts; Frances S. Marshall; Joan E. Ryan; Sr. Aloysia Saunders; Judith Schwindeman; James J. Steineman; Sr. Danielle Winkler; Richard S. Yelles;

--more--
College of Engineering--G. Karl Leinberger; William Marquitz; John A. Moraites, and William E. Schroth.

In all, 312 students were named to the Dean's List of Honor Students for averages of 3.5 or better for the semester.

8-6-62