At the request of the Bishop of Münster (Germany), H.E. Mgr. Reinhardt Lettmann, of the Rector of the Marian Sanctuary of Kevelaer (Germany), Mgr. Richard Schulte-Staade, and of the President of the Pontifical International Marian Academy, R. Fr. Paul Melada, the Holy Father John Paul II directed that the

TENTH INTERNATIONAL MARIOLGICAL CONGRESS and the

SEVENTEENTH INTERNATIONAL MARIAN CONGRESS be held in the Marian Sanctuary of Kevelaer, from the eleventh to the twentieth of September 1987.

The subject of the Tenth Mariological Congress (Sept. 11-17) will be: Marian Cult in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries, till the Second Vatican Council (exclusively). The subject of the Seventeenth Marian Congress (Sept. 18-20) will be: Mary—Mother of Christians.

The subjects of the Congresses will be treated in general sessions and in particular linguistic groups organized by the National Mariological Societies, namely the Croatian, English, French, German, Italian, Polish, Portuguese, Spanish.

For the American group, Rev. Eamon R. Carroll, O.Carm, will serve as President, and Rev. Theodore A. Koehler, S.M., will be Secretary. Anyone interested in presenting a paper at either Congress should contact Fr. Koehler, providing him with the necessary indications (topic, title, etc.):

RE: Kevelaer 1987

The Mariological Congresses have a strictly scientific character and are intended for students of the theological, historical and sociological sciences, and, since Vatican II, are the scene of scholarly ecumenical meetings regarding Marian positions.

The Marian Congresses have a devotional character and include religious manifestations; they are intended for the faithful and for the promotion of popular Marian piety. The Congresses are held every four years, in different countries.
