- ECAS Consultation:
 - Draft Staff Promotion Policy
 - Vigorous and substantial discussion; the following questions emerged:
 - Has this policy been benchmarked to other HR processes at comparable institutions? What are the results of that benchmarking?
 - In arriving at this draft policy, what other options were considered? ECAS is particularly interested in hearing about options that were considered and rejected under #2 Waiver of Posting Process.
 - Was a process for Interim appointments discussed? What were the results of that discussion?
 - If the processes of appointments are inflexible at the lowest levels, that is, a search is most often required, should that also not hold at the highest levels? Or, What is the reasoning for allowing flexibility at high levels but less flexibility at the lower levels of staff hiring and promotion?
 - Has the University Constitution been consulted in arriving at this policy? What are the constitutional grounds of this policy?
 - Joint JD/MPA Program proposal
 - Consensus is that ECAS should approve on behalf of the Academic Senate; A motion to approve, on behalf of the Academic Senate, the new joint program arrangement as presented to ECAS was made and properly seconded; motion passes 7-0-1. The Joint JD/MPA Program Proposal is recommended for approval.
