THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SAN FRANCISCO
PASTORAL CENTER

OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

445 CHURCH STREET, SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA 94114-1799 (415) 565-3600

January 5, 1989

Dear Members of The Mariological Society of America:

It is a distinct pleasure for me to formally invite you to attend the 1989 Mariological Society of America Convention to be held in the Archdiocese of San Francisco from May 31 to June 2. The focus of the Convention will be "Marialis Cultus: Fifteen Years Later (1974-1989)." Specific topics for the Convention include Mary and the Holy Trinity, Mary in the Eucharistic Celebrations, Mary and the Liturgy of the Hours, Marian Devotions and A Survey of Recent Mariology.

It is my hope that you will be able to attend this Convention at Mercy Center in Burlingame and that in so doing you will be richly rewarded. Given the excellence of past conventions and the superb reputations of the speakers slated for the 1989 Convention, I have every confidence that the 1989 gathering will provide many rich opportunities for deepening in our knowledge and love of Mary, the Mother of God.

I hope to see you, then, on May 31, 1989. I pray through the intercession of Mary Immaculate for the success of the 1989 Convention and the wellbeing of its participants.

With every best wish, then, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ John R. Quinn

Archbishop of San Francisco
