1. Committee Introductions/Senate Experience

Jay Janney – Management and Marketing (former chair) – Leads the Center for Integration of Faith and Work in SBA ; has been to 2 meetings filled in a term for someone so new to Senate

Catherine Kublik – Mathematics – Sciences - 1st year on Senate

Suki Kwon – Visual Arts– 3rd year on Senate -15 years at UD – FAC committee for last 2 years– Worked on Lecturer’s promotion policy – Hearing committee policy excited about – on LTC faculty development committee, especially for Global community – advocacy of international students

Laura Leming – Sociology/Anthropology/ Social Work – served many years on Senate on APC or SAPC; served on ECAS

Fran Rice – Libraries – Information systems and digital access – Secretary of Senate and ECAS
Served last 2 years on SAPC (see attached final report from SAPC 2018-2019)

2. In response to Mark Jacobs’ email about issues we raised a few Issues for going forward:
International students and dishonesty policy needs attention for implementation (their understanding and faculty implementation in cases where international students may not be fully cognizant of plagiarism standards); application of integrity standards for arts students (language doesn’t reflect their experience); international student representation on senate – is it adequate?
3. Laura confirmed with the committee that she’ll be teaching in India from Sept. 11-November 12 and will miss the first 2 Senate meetings. Suki Kwon volunteered to be the on-campus point person for the committee in Laura’s absence.

Meeting adjourned at 11:15 .
