REPORT, 1994-95: WESTERN REGION

A serious injury handicapped me physically and took me out of circulation for a prolonged period of time. This situation, coupled with the demise of Father Alfred Boeddeker, O.F.M., left me alone with no other committee member. To this date, I am still unable to recruit one or more members to serve as a planning committee with me. Consequently, the Western Region has not had a Mariology conference in the past year.

The University of San Francisco and St. Patrick's Seminary (Menlo Park) have both offered meeting space. With the help of Father Gerald Coleman, S.S., President/Rector of St. Patrick's Seminary, we may have a good chance of obtaining Father Raymond Brown, S.S., in the coming year to present a Scriptural perspective on contemporary Mariology. Two meetings with Father Coleman are already pointing us in this direction.
