1. Approval of minutes from October 25, 2021
 - a. The minutes were accepted as is.
2. Follow-up on Academic Senate Meeting
 - a. Some people told Neomi after the Senate meeting that they appreciated the clear way in which she described the process.
 - b. We will be on the agenda again in January or February. Neomi offered for others to make the presentation if they wanted.
3. Follow-up on Last Week's Meeting
 - a. Neomi followed up with Cassandra (working with CMM 100 instructors) and their ongoing assessment.
 - b. The Humanities Commons also have a deeper understanding of where they want to go
 - c. All of the coordinators have expressed difficulty in assessing a program that was created to be pluralistic and diverse-- so big umbrellas are difficult in an assessment process.
 - d. Somebody will have to reach conclusions about the components, and the coordinators are in the best position to do that. Perhaps we should continue to affirm their meta-assessments.
 - e. Neomi also followed up with Youssef.
4. People would like Michelle Pautz, Assistant Provost for CAP, to give an overview of the CAP program.
 - a. The number of courses we have for each component-- is this knowable?
5. Other
 - a. The coordinators are not assessing the ILGs, they are looking at the extent to which the courses in CAP are supportive of the ILGs they purport to support.
 - b. Art's capstone group: the group has been talking about what might be done in the future to get feedback from students on the capstones and the extent to which they are working.
6. Future topics:
 - a. The proposers of the well-being certificate have asked for and been granted an extension
