

Tissi

Anna Demmitt

Advisor: Dr. Stephen Wilhoit

Yaya

"Their hard pressed hands were a foreign touch. Their hands were rough and fast against her body."

Abit

"The rattling gets faster and faster as Abit's hands tremble. He lines up the scope and focuses on the figure coming towards him."

Tahir

"Mosquitoes cover their bodies like an unwanted blanket, trapping them in their nightmares."

Tissi is a region of Chad where the refugees of Sudan go to fight to be alive. Tissi contains the stories of three children fighting to simply live and one story of triumphant hope.
