Letter from Father William Saiko, S.V.D.

This is just a short note to bring the sad news that Archbishop Noser died on April 15th at 5:30 P.M. New Guinea time.

His death was most peaceful. He had been unconscious for about forty hours, and at the last moment he simply turned his head on the side and expired.

Ever since his trip to America last year, he was a sick man. He became weaker and weaker until he went to the hospital in Brisbane. There his condition was diagnosed as something like leukemia. He wished to return to Papua New Guinea. After his return he received fortnightly blood transfusions.

When his body began to reject this help, the Archbishop characteristically interpreted this as a sign of God's will and decided against more transfusions. As he got weaker, he moved to our little Mission hospital where his native Sisters were in constant attendance.

Priests, Brothers, Sisters and people from the area came to pray the rosary with him and for him. Toward the end he asked the Blessed Mother to come and take him to Heaven. Just before he lapsed into unconsciousness, his last words were: May Your will be done which was the motto of his whole life.

Archbishop Noser asked that his well-worn New Testament and his copy of the Life of St. Therese be buried with him. And just as the Little Flower spends her heaven by doing good on earth, you may be sure that Archbishop Noser, who followed her so faithfully in life, will be helping all of us from Heaven.
