Battleground Ohio

01.09.2012 | Hot Topics, Culture and Society, Faculty

The early primary states such as Iowa, New Hampshire and South Carolina are the headlines now, but the swing states will take center stage as the 2012 election season progresses.

Bookmark http://udayton.edu/news/election2012/index.php for a list of election sources with a particular focus on Ohio, a perennial battleground state.

The University of Dayton — Ohio’s largest private university — has faculty experts on a variety of topics available for interviews on the 2012 election. Whether it's the economy, campaigns, Ohio voters, immigration, religion and politics or education policy, University of Dayton experts can provide research and commentary for 2012 election coverage.
