Dean of Students Named

09.13.2011 | Students Christine Schramm, who's served in a number of leadership positions in the student development division at the University of Dayton since 1989, has been promoted to associate vice president of student development and dean of students.

"Chris brings significant experience and a strong understanding of our Catholic, Marianist mission to this newly created position," said William Fischer, vice president for student development. "I believe she will do an outstanding job in this new role."

Schramm will oversee housing and residential life; community standards and civility; multicultural affairs; and student emergency and crisis management. She also will serve as the adviser to the Student Government Association.

A Kettering resident, she previously served as assistant vice president and director of leadership formation at the University of Dayton.

She holds a bachelor's degree in communications and a master's degree in college and university administration from Michigan State University.
