1-22-2009

'The Wall'

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/1595

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlagen1@udayton.edu.
Between us
Don't try to touch it
Don't try to see it
Because you can't
Second, but not
To be confused with the First-
   There exists another wall
   But
   Be careful
   This wall is around us
   Surrounds us
   With no way out
Third, putting one and two
Together
   You'll be able to see
   We are separated, though
   We are in this together
   You and me
But what does this mean?
Situation One:
   You are different
   From me
   I have issues
With you
And you, me
That said, we'll look at

Situation Two:
You are different
From me
Still
I realize I need you
And
You need me, so

Situation Three:
A mix of the
Two
We are different
But don't care what

Difference means
And these are the three realities.
But some may say that
"Three is false," for
Differences are so plain
To see
And some may say that
"Two makes sense,"
Because it can, but
That's too easy
Still, many say that
"One is true,
Because that is the world
We live in, you see?"

Although-
For there is always one
Of these
Let us go back to what we know:
There exists a wall
Between us
We can't see it
Or touch it
But we know it is there
And there is another wall
Around us
And this one keeps us in
So what are we doing
Worrying about a wall
We can never escape
From?
For there are two walls-
One keeps us in, and
The other lets us see
But there was only ever one wall
And the second
Masquerades,
Is harmony.

For more information, contact Shawn Robinson, associate director of media relations, at 937-229-3391 or srobinson@udayton.edu.