Remembering 9/11

09.09.2008 | Culture and Society, Catholic, Campus and Community The University of Dayton will remember the anniversary of the Sept. 11 attacks with the following events:

- 8:46 a.m.: Tolling of the Immaculate Conception Chapel bells for one minute to coincide with American Airlines Flight 11 hitting 1 World Trade Center.
- 9:03 a.m.: Tolling of the Immaculate Conception Chapel bells for one minute to coincide with United Airlines Flight 175 hitting 2 World Trade Center.
- 9:37 a.m.: Tolling of the Immaculate Conception Chapel bells for one minute to coincide with American Airlines Flight 77 hitting the Pentagon.
- 10:03 a.m.: Tolling of the Immaculate Conception Chapel bells for one minute to coincide with United Airlines Flight 93 crashing in Pennsylvania.
- 12:05 p.m.: UD's regularly scheduled noon Mass. If you plan on filming in the chapel, we ask that you do not use a tripod to avoid creating extra noise.
- 9:10 p.m.: UD's student government association will hold a candlelight vigil at Humanities Plaza on the UD campus. The students will reflect and pray as a community about the events of Sept. 11, 2001. Students will then have the option of heading straight to the regularly scheduled 9:30 p.m. Mass in the chapel of the Marycrest residence hall. This will be a Mass for peace. If you plan on filming in the chapel, we ask that you do not use a tripod to avoid creating extra noise. For interviews that evening, contact Michelle Whelan at 440-503-6636.

At the noon Mass and 9:10 p.m. candlelight vigil, the UD student government association also will pass out bookmarks with the names of UD-related victims of the 9/11 tragedies and a prayer remembering those victims.
