Announcing Rev. William G. Most as the Second Guest Lecturer for the Summer Religion in Life Series
DAYTON, Ohio, June, 1966 --- Rev. William G. Most of Loras College, Dubuque, Iowa, will be the second guest lecturer for the Summer Religion in Life Series at the University of Dayton on Tuesday, July 5. His topic, Mary in Our Life, will be given in the Little Theatre of the John F. Kennedy Memorial Union at 7:30 P.M.

He follows Rev. John Kelley, S.M., of the University of Dayton, who spoke last week on "Postmortem: When Did God Die?" before an overflow crowd.

Father Most, a professor of Latin and Greek at Loras, is a recognized Catholic authority on Mary, the Mother of God. He received the Mariological Award for 1960 for "uncommon excellence in the field of Mariology". He is an author of many text books and also has written a noted book, Mary In Our Life, which has been translated into seven languages.

Father Most also has written many articles on Mary and for these works received the Marian Library Medal in 1955.

Father Most Tuesday night will assess the changing attitudes toward Mary in today's modern world.
