DAYTON, Ohio August 23, 1966 ---- Two men, Dr. Lorin Staats and Vincent Jukes, who spent the better part of 36 years together at Ohio University, have linked educational forces once again at the University of Dayton. The pair have joined the Communication Arts Department at UD after their July 1 joint retirement at the Athens, Ohio, University.

Dr. Staats, who taught speech, was Director of Forensics and then Chairman of the Public Address Department at Ohio U., comes to Dayton as a professor in communication arts, according to Mr. George Biersack, Chairman, Communication Arts Department. Mr. Jukes will be an associate professor and Assistant to the Director of Broadcasting.

Dr. Staats, one of the best known men in his field, is a graduate of Greenville High School. He received his bachelor of arts degree from Ohio University in 1926 and his master of arts in 1930. He taught at West Virginia Wesleyan and in the public schools of Ross County and at Washington Court House between his degree programs. He coached football and basketball at the latter school in the 1920's.

A member of the United States Army in World War I, Dr. Staats received his doctorate at Ohio State University in 1946, and has taken some graduate courses at Cornell University. He is married to the former Esther Kenney of Athens. They have a son, Lorin Jr., who is teaching at the University of Omaha.

Mr. Jukes, who played football at East Tech in Cleveland, studied theater, drama and history before his 1930 graduation from Ohio U. He received his masters degree from Western Reserve University and has completed all but his dissertation for a doctorate. While taking his doctorate work at the University of Michigan he was on one of seven national theater conference fellowships.

Mr. Jukes was a lieutenant in the United States Navy from 1943 to 1946. Upon his return to Ohio U. he helped to form the first university FM radio station in Ohio.

He is married to the former Dorothy Cecilia Niece of Cleveland. They (MORE) have three children, Barbara, Cecily and Eileen. The latter, the youngest child, is a junior at Ohio University.

To complete the togetherness, Dr. Staats and Mr. Jukes are neighbors in the Georgetown Apartments.
