The University of Dayton Continuing Education Division announces four new courses starting in the month of February.

On February 10 at 6:00 P. M. "Electronic Data Processing" will begin with the first of 10 sessions. Each session will last 2 1/2 Hours. The course is to help develop on a practical basis, the theory of internally stored program computing machines as a logical sequel to tabulating equipment knowledge. Instruction will be centered on the IBM 1401 and the student will gain a working knowledge of programming this computer. Concepts of System 360 will be introduced and compared with present concepts. The instructor will be Mr. John M. Schneiders.

Dr. Thomas C. Campanelle, professor of Education at U. D., will initiate a course "Counseling For Parents" on February 14 at 7:45 P.M. This course will run for 10 weeks with each session lasting 1 1/2 hours once each week. Dr. Campanelle will look at the rate of the parent in our Space Age through: sociology, anthropology, education, and psychology.

February 23 will find Dr. John R. O'Donnell, professor of Education at U. D. starting "Enjoying The New Mathematics". The course will be held each Wednesday from 7:30 - 9:15 P. M. for 8 weeks. It is designed for teachers, parents, and the intellectually curious who are interested in discovering the meaning of the revolutionary developments in the world of Mathematics. "Marriage Guidance" is the fourth course starting this month. It is designed for engaged and married couples and will be held each Thursday from 7:30 to 9:00 P.M. for six weeks. The course will be handled by different lecturers each week and will cover the following areas:

Strategy in Courtship
Earning Happiness in Marriage
Moral Demands of Marriage
Divine Plan of Parenthood
Signposts to Success
Making Marriage Work

More
There are no educational prerequisites for the course, but it is open only to those who are planning to marry in the near future as well as those already married.

For further information on any of the courses contact the Continuing Education Division, The University of Dayton.
