

2-9-1966

"Love Between Man and Woman: Contemporary Views" Panel Discussion to be Presented at the University of Dayton's "Religion in Life" Series

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

"Love Between Man and Woman: Contemporary Views" Panel Discussion to be Presented at the University of Dayton's "Religion in Life" Series" (1966). News Releases. 3013.
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/3013

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.

The University of Dayton's "Religion In Life" series will present a panel discussion on "Love Between Man and Woman: Contemporary Views" Tuesday, February 15, 1966 at 4:00 P.M. and 8:00 P.M. in Wohlleben Hall on the University of Dayton Campus.

The panel members:

Rev. Richard Leidberg, Chaplain at Wright State University

Rev. Norbert Burns, S. M., Dept. of Theology at U.D.

Mr. Randolph Lumppp, Dept. of Thiology at U. D.

Mr

The program moderator will be Mr. John Chrisman, Department of Philosophy at U. D.

During the panel discussion Rev. Leidberg will discuss the opinions and philosophies of several authorities of the past 200 years. Father Burns will handle the current "playboy" philosophy of love between man and woman and Mr. Lumppp will talk of love between man and woman in its historical development from ancient times until the present.

Rev. Liedberg of Earlham College and Andover Newton Theological School in Mass. He has served a campus pastor for the University of Vermont, was minister to youth at the 1st Congregational Church in Sharon, Mass., and assistant minister of the Stewart Ridge Community Church in Chicago prior to coming to Wright State.

Father Burns was ordained to the priesthood in 1953 and has been director of the Marianist religious community at U. D. since August, 1965. Prior to that time Father Burns served as sub-director at Mt. St. John, master of scholastics at Mt. St. John and was assigned to the Marianist Retreat House at the Mount.

More

He holds a doctorate in Sacred Theology from Pontifical University of the Angelicum in Rome, Italy.

Mr. Lumpp holds a BA in Philosophy from Seattle University and is presently working on his PH. D at Marquette University.

Che public is invited to this panel discussion. Tickets are available at the Universtiy of Dayton for $1.00. Priests, religious, ministers, faculty, and students are admitted without charge.

2-9-66