University of Dayton Alumni will gather in churches all over the world Sunday, February 27, 1966 to take part in the Fourth Annual International Communion Sunday, sponsored by the U.D. National Alumni Association.

Chapters outside Dayton will gather in major cities to attend Mass, receive Communion and then attend a family breakfast gathering.

Honorary chairman for this year's event is Rt. Rev. Msgr. Carl J. Ryan, Superintendent of Schools for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati and a 1916 graduate of U.D. This will mark his 50th anniversary as a graduate of what was then St. Mary's Institute.

Msgr. Ryan will celebrate the Mass in the U. D. Chapel for the Dayton area alumni and Brother Elmer C. Lackner, Vice President for Public Relations and Development at U.D. will speak at the breakfast.

Other chapters participating include Detroit, Michigan; Hollywood, Florida; New York City; Chicago, Illinois; Boston, Massachusetts; and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Reports are still coming in from other parts of the world on their chapter plans to participate.

The U.D. Mass will start at 9:00 a.m. with the breakfast immediately after.

All U.D. Alumni and friends are invited to attend.
