DAYTON, Ohio, October 17, 1966 — Charles W. Stonebarger, retired executive of Delco Products Division of General Motors Company, has been named Development Relations Officer, Bro. Elmer C. Lackner, S.M., Vice President for Public Relations, announced today.

He will serve in the Development Office, a division of the Public Relations Department, with Elwood Zimmer, Director of Development, and John Steinbruegge, who is in charge of foundation relations.

In his new capacity at the University, Mr. Stonebarger will enlist the interest of others in the plans and growth of the institution and help to make known the nature and extent of its present operation.

Mr. Stonebarger, who was supervisory buyer of non-ferrous metals at the time of his Delco retirement March 31, 1964, was associated with General Cable Company of New York for the past two years.

A native Daytonian, he is a 1920 graduate of St. Mary's Preparatory School. He was employed by the Troy Pearl Laundry, owned by his family, until 1932, and then served as a sales executive with tracking firms until 1943 when he joined Delco.

He is a past exalted ruler and secretary of the Elks, was president of the Miami Valley Traffic Club in 1962 and President of the American Businessmen's Club in the 1930s.

He is married to the former Ruth C. Youngs of Dayton. They have three children and nine grandchildren.
