DAYTON, Ohio, November 2, 1966 --- Presidents from eight private Ohio universities will be in Dayton November 9, 10, and 11 to head the 1966-67 Dayton area Ohio Foundation of Independent Colleges fund drive.

The educators, guests of the Dayton Area Committee of OFIC and the University of Dayton, will meet Wednesday, November 9 for the 8 A.M. Kickoff Breakfast at the Van Cleve Hotel. Mr. Herman Lehman, retired General Manager of Frigidaire and committee chairman is host. Following the breakfast 10 teams of educators will call on businesses and industries. This is but one section of the statewide drive which is in its sixteenth year and has solicited over $13,000,000.

The 10 teams, as assigned by the OFIC main office in Columbus, include three nun presidents of Catholic girl schools in Cincinnati, Columbus and Cleveland. Sister Maria Corona, President of Mount St. Joseph in Cincinnati will head one team with Sister Ann Catherine of Ursuline College in Cleveland. Sister Rose Angela, President of Ursuline and Sister M. Suzanne, President of the College of St. Mary, Columbus, form a second team.

Other teams are President James P. Dixon of Antioch College and Mr. Luther Warren of Wilmington College, President Ivan E. Frick of Findlay College and Calvin Prine of Denison University, and President Noel Johnston of Defiance College and E. V. Rasmussen of Baldwin-Wallace.

President Samuel L. Meyer of Ohio Northern University and Richard W. Wohn of Defiance, Peter W. Weston, Executive Director of Development at Muskingum and David Stucky of Wittenberg, Vice President Louis S. Gibb of Ohio Northern and Howard I. Westin, Wittenberg, President Raymond A. Roesch of Dayton and Philip F. Myers, Western College for Women, Oxford; and President James M. Read of Wilmington and Andrew T. Jacob, College of St. Mary's.

Father Roesch will entertain the solicitations group at dinner Thursday, November 10, in the President's Dining Room of the John F. Kennedy Memorial Union.

Some members of the committees will be in other parts of the state during November for OFIC solicitations.
