DAYTON, Ohio, November 8, 1966 --- Mr. Lawrence Tagg is offering occupational therapy in the form of singing for the people of Dayton and the surrounding area. Mr. Tagg, director of the University of Dayton concert band and the UD Choir, is planning his Christmas Concert in the UD Fieldhouse for Sunday, December 4, for 8:15 P.M. and is inviting any singing hopefuls to join the musical fun.

An annual affair, last year's chorus included over 200 singers from 30 churches and 20 schools in the Miami Valley. There will be three rehearsals, November 13, 20, and 27, all Sundays, at 3 P.M. in the Kennedy Union Ballroom on the UD campus.

Conductor Tagg has programmed a Gabrieli work for double chorus and brass choirs, the Vaughn Williams Fantasia on Christmas Carols, and a new cantata by Harold Rohlig based on the German chorale melody Wachet Auf.
