DAYTON, Ohio, November 28, 1966 — The "University on Wheels", sponsored by the National Catholic Conference for Interracial Justice, is coming to the University of Dayton this weekend. Five nuns, including the director and associate director of the Conference, will offer the two-day (Friday and Saturday, Dec. 2-3) instruction.

Armed with the theme, "Interpreting Truth for our Time in Language of Our Time about Challenges in our Time", the quintet of sisters from Wisconsin, Chicago and Missouri will open the conference at 7:30 P.M. in the Ballroom of UD's John F. Kennedy Memorial Union.

Sister Maura, C.S.J., Associated Director of the Chicago-based Conference, will open the program Friday with a talk entitled "The Spirit of Vatican II in Current Racial Crisis".

The program will reconvene Saturday morning at 9:30 with opening remarks by Bishop Edward McCarthy, Auxiliary Bishop of Cincinnati. Sister Mary Peter, Director of the Conference, will give the keynote address, "The Voice of the Christian in Today's Racial Situation".

A film, "Children Without", will be shown before the luncheon break. The first afternoon session will start at 12:15 P.M. and include an address, "Minorities in Our American Heritage", by Sister Mary, S.L. of Webster College, Webster Groves, Missouri. Sister Mary Christopher, O.P., of the Dominican College, Racine, Wisconsin, will follow with a talk on "Education for the 21st Century".

The final talk will be given by Sister Esther, O.P, of Edgewood College of the Sacred Heart, Madison, Wisconsin. It is "Sociological Roots of our Present Problems."

Small group discussions and a question and answer period will close the sessions about 4:30 P.M.

Included in the short course are a film library, a collection of printed materials and books, and tape recordings. The Conference embraces 15 nuns, who normally form teams of five for each workshop. The Conference has traveled almost 20,000 miles in the past few months.
