DAYTON, Ohio, December 13, 1966 --- Mr. M. Byron Morton, Assistant Superintendent for Public Instruction in the Ohio State Department of Education, will join the University of Dayton faculty in September of next year. Dr. Ellis Joseph, Chairman, Department of Secondary Education at UD, in making the announcement, revealed that Mr. Morton will become an associate professor of education.

Dr. Joseph said: "We are extremely fortunate in getting a man of Mr. Morton's stature in Ohio education. We know his background will be a great asset to our School of Education."

Mr. Morton is well known in the Dayton area, having been superintendent of Butler-Vandalia Schools and of the Montgomery County school system before going to the State Department of Education.

While with the State Department Mr. Morton has directed the operations of the division of school finance, the foundation program, pupil transportation, field services, school building section, federal impacted areas assistance, school organization services, the State School for the Blind, and the State School for the Deaf.

He is considered one of the most knowledgeable men in the areas of educational administration and secondary education in Ohio.
