DAYTON, Ohio, December 20, 1966 --- Four courses, from hymn playing and singing to clothes construction, will be offered by the University of Dayton's Special Sessions Department in January, Miss Nora Duffy, Director, announced today. The four brings to 35 the number of courses offered by Special Sessions since September and through January.

First of these January programs is Review of American English which starts January 10 and runs 47 sessions. Taught by Mr. John McNally of the UD English Department will be held in room 315 of Kennedy Union and run from 7 P.M. to 9:30 P.M. This course is designed to improve speaking, listening, reading and writing skills.

The Bishop Method of Clothing Construction is a tailoring course, which starts January 11. It will be conducted five Wednesdays from 7:30 P.M. to 9:30 P.M. in room 331 of the Kennedy Union. The course includes the construction of a two-piece suit, completely lined, with set-in sleeve.

The Approach to Hymn Playing and Hymn Singing course will be taught by Bro. Francis W. Schneider, S.M., Assistant Professor of Music at UD. It will start January 17 and run four Tuesdays in the studio of the Music Building from 7:30 P.M. to 9 P.M. A special question-and-answer period will follow each night's lesson. This is optional.

The final January offering is Reading Improvement, starting January 24. Time is 7:15 P.M. to 8:30 P.M. in room 331 of the Kennedy Union. It offers sixteen sessions (Tuesdays and Thursdays and is designed to improve speed and comprehension.
