1-1-1966

Three New Faculty Members Added to Geology, Psychology and Political Science Departments at the University of Dayton

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation
"Three New Faculty Members Added to Geology, Psychology and Political Science Departments at the University of Dayton" (1966). News Releases. 3096.
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/3096

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlagen1@udayton.edu.
Bro. Leonard A. Mann, S.M., Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, has announced the addition of three new faculty members to the departments of Geology, Psychology and Political Science.

Mr. Dale Richard Sparling, a Ph.D. candidate at Ohio State University, comes to UD from Western Washington State College. Prior to this, he was an instructor at the Lima and Marion Branches of Ohio State University. From 1956 to 1961, Mr. Sparling was a geologist for the Creole Petroleum Corporation, stationed in Venezuela.

Mr. Sparling, who is married to the former Jane Stoudt, has three children. He is an Associate member, Chapter at Large of Sigma Xi, and has been published in the Journal of Paleontology.

Robert Francis Duffey, who received his doctorate in Speech Pathology from Purdue University in 1954, comes to UD as an Associate Professor of Psychology. His previous teaching experience includes Drake University and Marquette University. He also served as Supervisory Clinical Psychologist at VA Hospital, Perry Point, Md., and Clinical Psychology Trainee at VA MH Clinic, Washington, D.C.

In addition to his duties as a professor of psychology, Dr. Duffey will be Assistant Chairman of the Department of Psychology. He is married to the former Evelyn Gore, and has four children. Dr. Duffey has been widely published on the subjects of speech and psychology, and is a member of the American Psychological Association; Iowa Psychological Association; Division of Clinical Psychology; Society for Psychological Study of Social Issues and the American Association of University Professors. He has received Degrees from Notre Dame, University of Wisconsin and Purdue, and did post-doctoral VA traineeship at Catholic University.

Lyndon Abbott, a branch chief in the Management Analysis Division of the Air Force Logistics Command, W.P.A.F.B., will join the Political Science Department as assistant professor of public Administration.

Mr. Abbott has been at Wright-Patterson since 1952. Before this time, he served with the Tennessee Valley Authority. A graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University, Mr. Abbott did his graduate studies at the Universities of
NEW FACULTY MEMBERS--ADD ONE of Wisconsin and Minnesota. He previously taught at the University of Minnesota and the University of Tennessee.

A member of Phi Beta Kappa, Mr. Abbott is a charter member of the American Society for Public Administration, and a member of the Executive Committee of its Miami Valley Chapter. At the University of Dayton, Mr.
Abbott will direct the internship experience for graduate students in the public administration program. He is the author of four books and various other studies in government administration.

#######