Miss Dolores (Dee) McAnespie and Mrs. Owen (Katherine) McCall, secretaries in the Public Relations Department and Development Office respectively, have been promoted to Administrative Assistants at the University of Dayton, Rev. George B. Barrett, S.M., Vice President, announced today.

Miss McAnespie, known affectionately as Dee by thousands of UD alumni throughout the country, will be an Administrative Assistant to Bro. Elmer C. Lackner, S.M., Vice President for Public Relations, while Mrs. McCall will hold the same title under Mr. Elwood Zimmer, Director of Development.

In her new capacity Miss McAnespie will become an assistant editor of the ALUMNUS magazine, published four times a year with a single-issue circulation of 15,500. She will supervise the development and maintenance of files on all UD Alumni and other benefactors, the compilation and gathering of statistics for reports out of the Public Relations and Development offices, and assist the Vice President with the business aspects of his department and with the details of special events which are the responsibility of his office.

Mrs. McCall will be responsible for the developing of records for University fund-raising and supervise the preparation and distribution of promotional materials for fund-raising campaigns and other University functions relative to development.

Miss McAnespie, who started as secretary to the Director of Sports Publicity in 1949, is a 1951 graduate of UD. A native of Dayton, Miss McAnespie became secretary to Bro. Lackner in 1959. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis McAnespie of 4124 Kimberly Drive.

Mrs. McCall is the wife of Owen McCall of 2612 Wehrly Avenue. The couple has one son, Michael, a student at UD. She is from Lima, Ohio.
