Phi Delta Kappa, the international and professional fraternity for men in education, will be installed on the University of Dayton campus this Saturday, Bro. Joseph J. Panzer, S.M., Dean of the School of Education, announced today.

The chapter, which will have 51 charter members including the Very Rev. Raymond A. Roeach, S.M., University President, will be known as the University of Dayton Chapter $158. The members will be initiated and installed at 4 P.M. in the John F. Kennedy Memorial Union by an examination team from the Ohio State University chapter.

Attending the program, which includes dinner at 6 P.M. in the Kennedy Union, will be two international officers and two District V officers. Vice President Homer L. Johnson of Kansas State College, Pittsburg, Kansas, and Maurice F. Shadley, Director of Special Services, of Indiana, are the international officers while A. Garland Hardy of Ball State University and Frank R. Hickerson of the University of Toledo are the District V representatives.

The chapter, following the dinner, will elect officers after presentation of a slate from a nominating committee at 8:15 P.M.

Included among the charter members are Rev. George Barrett, S.M., the University's Vice President; Rev. Charles J. Lees, S.M., Provost; Bro. Louis J. Faerber, S.M., former Dean of the School of Education and now Supervisor of the New York Province of the Society of Mary; and Dr. Joseph Panzer, S.M., present Dean of the School of Education. Other members come from the University and the public and parochial school systems of Dayton.

A committee from UD's School of Education, Dr. John R. O'Donnell, Dr. Joseph Panzer, Dr. O.R.Edgington, and Professor James LaVanche, laid the groundwork for the introduction of Phi Delta Kappa to the University.
