DAYTON, Ohio, April 11, 1967 --- The Reverend John L. McKenzie, S.J. of the Department of Theology at the University of Notre Dame will address the President's Ad Hoc Committee for the Study of Academic Freedom at the University of Dayton and the University Community Monday, April 17, at 8:00 p.m. in the John F. Kennedy Ballroom.

The topic of Father McKenzie's address is "The Relationship between the Magisterium and the Nature of a Catholic University." In his address, Father McKenzie will reflect on the posture of the theologian and the philosopher in a Catholic university.

Recently, Bruce Publishing Company issued an unabridged paperback edition of the Jesuit author's Dictionary of the Bible, which was originally published in 1965 and won the Catholic Press Association Award as the best book in an analysis of the entire Bible.
