DAYTON, Ohio, May 3, 1967 — "General Plan and Significant Aspects of our Program for Training Graduate Students in Group Guidance and Group Counseling" will be a panel subject at the University of Dayton this Friday, May 5. The occasion is a meeting of the Association of Counselor Educators in Ohio at the University's John F. Kennedy Memorial Union from 9 A.M. to 3 P.M.

Representatives from 12 Ohio Approved Counselor Education Training Centers and Directors of Guidance in Ohio's large metropolitan areas will attend the conference. It is co-sponsored by the Department of School Administration and Counseling, and under the direction of Dr. Charles E. Weaver, Supervisor of Guidance Services, State Department of Education in Columbus.

The panel discussion will start at 9:45 A.M. after a get-acquainted session to last 45 minutes. Moderator for the panel discussion is Dr. Dwight L. Arnold of Kent State University. On the panel are Dr. Jeffrey Messing, University of Toledo; Dr. James Grubb, Ohio University; Dr. Thomas Campanelle, University of Dayton, and Dr. Jack Orsburn, Western Reserve University.

The second subject, "The Urban School Counselor", will begin at 11:15 A.M. and will be given by Dr. Paul W. Briggs, Superintendent of the Cleveland City School System. During the luncheon period, 12 noon to 1 P.M. the group will discuss Dr. Briggs' presentation.

Dr. James Grubb of Ohio University will open the afternoon program at 1 P.M. with discussion of "The Elementary Counselor." Included in this presentation will be 10 minute dissertations by four Ohio University graduate students.

The business meeting will follow about 2 P.M. and adjournment is set for 3 P.M.
