DAYTON, Ohio, July 20, 1967 — Rev. George B. Barrett, S.M., Vice President of the University of Dayton, has been named Director of Bergamo, the Pope John XXIII Center of Christian Renewal, on the University's East Campus. He will retain his position as UD's Vice President, but will not serve as the religious director of the school's West Campus.

Father Barrett, who has been the University's Vice President since 1958, is replacing Rev. John Kelley, S.M., acting director while Bergamo was establishing its early program. Father Kelley will remain with Bergamo, but also continues his studies as professor of theology at UD.

Bro. Donald Wigal, who has been at Cincinnati's Purcell High School, becomes sub-director of Bergamo while Rev. Charles Brady, S.M., will be the chaplain and Bro. Paul Merland, S.M., the business manager. These men have been a part of the UD community.
