

7-31-1967

Four Faculty Members Added to the School of Education

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

"Four Faculty Members Added to the School of Education" (1967). News Releases. 3180.
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/3180

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.

DAYTON, Ohio July 31, 1967 --- Dr. Simon Chavez, Chairman of Elementary Education in the University of Dayton School of Education, has announced the addition of four new faculty members for the Fall trimester. Three were appointed to the rank of Assistant Professor and one to the post of Instructor of Education.

Mr. Neil Eugene Thomas comes to U.D. from Central Missouri State College where he served as supervisor of student teachers and was an assistant professor. He received his B.S. in Education from Texas Christian University and earned his Master of Education degree at the University of Houston. He is presently completing his doctorate at North Texas State University. His teaching experience includes teaching in elementary schools and serving as head of the Education Department at Magic Valley Christian College.

Mrs. Helen Barnum Frye of Fairborn, Ohio, served as an assistant professor at Wittenberg University this past year teaching Kindergarten Curriculum, Arithmetic Methods and Modern Math for Elementary Teachers. She is a candidate for a doctorate degree at Ohio State and received her B.A. at Ohio Wesleyan and M.Ed. at Wittenberg University. She also taught for five years in the Fairborn City Schools.

Miss Idajean Windell hails from Hammond, Indiana, where she taught grades 4 and 5 at Sacred Heart School and Hammond, Indiana, School. She recently received her Masters degree, majoring in Special Education, at Indiana University and did her undergraduate work at St. Joseph College, Rennsselaer, Indiana. She has also had experience teaching for one summer in the Indiana Special School for Migrant Children.

Mr. Gordon Edward Fuchs comes from Milwaukee Wisconsin, where he taught at Edison Junior High and was principal at Cardinal Cushing School for two years. He received his B.S. in Elementary Education and his M.A. in Administration and Guidance at the University of Wisconsin where he is presently continuing his education.