DAYTON, Ohio, August 22, 1967 --- More than 2,000 incoming freshmen will venture through the University of Dayton's annual freshmen orientation program, Sunday, August 27, through Labor Day (Monday, September 4). The nine-day period has been planned by the University to acquaint the Class of 1971 with the many facets of student life at the University.

While many freshmen will begin this Saturday, August 26, the official program begins Sunday afternoon, August 27, when the UD Parents Association sponsors a Welcome Session for freshmen and their parents in the UD fieldhouse. Featured at this meeting will be Very Rev. Raymond A. Roesch, S.M., University President; Mayor Dave Hall of Dayton, Rev. Charles Lees, S.M., University Provost; Mr. Louis Koepnick, President of the Parents Association; Mr. Paul Trey, Vice President of the Association, and Jack Boos, 1967-68 Student Government President.

A reception will follow from 2 P.M. to 4 P.M. in the Kennedy Union Ballroom.

The orientation period will continue Monday at 8:30 A.M. when Father Lees discusses college life and the students' responsibilities, and the orientation committee discusses the week-long activities.

From Monday through Friday morning, freshmen, during the day, will attend group meetings, take guidance, placement and scholastic aptitude tests if needed, attend How to Study panels, have pictures taken for ID cards, register for classes, and meet with Deans of the schools within the University and the chairmen of the academic departments. The How to Study panels and group meetings with deans and chairmen proved very popular last year since all sessions were attended by the 35 or so freshmen in each of the groups. Each group has faculty and upperclassmen moderators.

There also will be special lectures, a University Arts Series performance, library tours, discussion groups, Concert Under the Stars, Student Government and Union Activities Organization concerts, variety show, football premiere, quickie bowling, billiards and table tennis tourneys, and picnics and dances.

The special evening programs will start Monday with Richard Dyer Bennet, internationally known folk singer, opening the 1967-68 University Arts Series. His performance will be in the UD Fieldhouse at 7:30 P.M. A With or Without Party will be held in the Kennedy Union game room with honky-tonk piano, pizza, ice cream, peanuts and other refreshments. The quickie tourneys will be held at the same time--all at 9:30 P.M.

Professor Daniel Hoy of the UD Philosophy Department will discuss "The Philosophy of Existentialism" on Tuesday evening at 7:30 P.M. in Miriam Hall, room 119. The UD Players also will render a one-act play in the Boll Theater and the film, "Pumpkin Eater" with Ann Bancroft, will be shown in the Wohlleben Hall auditorium, all at 7:30 P.M. Hayrides around the campus and an 8 P.M. dance on the tennis courts will round out the evening.

"Can You be Cool and Catholic on Campus" is the subject of a talk by Rev. Cyril Middendorf, University Chaplain, Wednesday from 4 to 5 P.M. in the Kennedy Ballroom. Dr. Charles Scheidler, UD's Chief Psychologist, will talk on "Changes in the Personality of College Freshmen over A Four-Year Period" at 7:30 P.M. in the Ballroom. A discussion, "Montage on Love" will be held in the Boll Theater. Material for this program will come from such sources as The Little Prince, Mr. Blue, The Prophet, and The Art of Loving and stage effects will be used.

The Wright Patterson Air Force Base Kitty Hawk Band will be in concert on the Kennedy Union patio at 9 P.M. to close out Wednesday evening.

Dr. James MacMahon will offer a repeat of his 1966 orientation talk, "Sex, Psychology and Space" in the Ballroom at 7:30 P.M. Thursday. A Missing Link program will be held at the same time on the Kennedy Roof Terrace. It's subject will be the Standards of Christain Morality. A variety show will end the evening at 9:30 P.M. on the front steps of the Kennedy Union.

The Student Government and Union Activities Organization take over Friday afternoon and offer a Paint-In on the tennis courts from 3 to 4:30 P.M. and the Serendipity Singers will be in concert at 8 P.M. in the Fieldhouse.
