DAYTON, Ohio, August 25, 1967 — Mr. Gerald Kerns, associate professor of political science at Wayne State University in Detroit, has accepted a similar position at the University of Dayton, Bro. Norbert Brockman, Chairman of the Political Science Department, announced today. Mr. Kern, who has a bachelor of arts degree in political science from Wichita State University, will begin his duties next week.

Besides his BA degree, Mr. Kerns has taken graduate work at Indiana University. He must finish his dissertation, "The Constitutional Thought of Alexander Hamilton," before he is awarded his graduate degrees. He also served as a panelist recently at the convention of the Midwest Political Science Association. The subject was "Political Theory on Civil Disobedience."

Mr. Kern is married and the father of three girls, Monica, 3 1/2; Diane, 2; and Emily, six months.
