DAYTON, Ohio, March 19, 1968 --- The Ohio Home Economics Association will conduct an annual meeting on March 28, 29 and 30, in the Sheraton-Dayton Hotel. The program is under the direction of the Home Economics Department at the University of Dayton.

Miss Pauline Metzger of UD's Home Economics Department, will serve as general chairman for the meeting. Chairman of UD Home Economics Department is Mrs. Elizabeth Payne, who also is president of the Ohio group.

The program, "Focus on the Seventies," will concentrate on consumer credit. Speakers on this theme will be Dr. Gwen Bymers of Cornell University, Mr. Roger L. Downing, vice president of the Ohio Consumer Loan Association; Mr. Robert Whitby, Management Consultant of Chicago, and Congressman Charles Whalen from Ohio's Third Congressional District. Congressman Whalen is on leave of absence as Chairman of UD's Economics Department.

UD's Home Economics Club, of which senior Kathy Fitzsimmons is president, will serve as host for the chapters from 16 other Ohio colleges. The Department is planning tours of the University and of the city during the three-day convention.
