4-3-1968

The University of Dayton Sends Students to Europe

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation
"The University of Dayton Sends Students to Europe" (1968). News Releases. 3266.
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/3266

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.
DAYTON, Ohio, April 3, 1968 --- Three members of a Dayton family are among the ten students who will be traveling to Europe this summer under a University of Dayton program sponsored by the American International Academy. Julie, Bill and Joan Hansen, children of Mr. & Mrs. Conrad Hansen of 424 Volusia Street, Dayton, will be among the European travelers.

The American International Academy, with headquarters in Salt Lake City, sponsors many tours each summer which incorporate study with travel. The UD group will be traveling with 200 college and high school students to Italy, Switzerland, France and England. Instead of participating in the study sessions for credit, the ten area students will spend the time in more extensive travel, including short trips to Germany and Holland.

The group will leave New York on June 24 and fly to Rome for the first stop on their six week tour. Other cities to be visited are Florence, Lausanne, Paris and London. The travelers will depart from London for New York on August 2.

The Daytonians making the tour are students at area colleges and high schools. Julie Hansen is a sophomore at UD majoring in accounting in the School of Business Administration. Bill is a student at Xavier University in Cincinnati and sister Joan, who will attend UD next fall, is a senior at Julienne High School. Mary Alice Buerschen, also of Dayton and a junior at Mt. St. Joseph College in Cincinnati, will travel with the group.

Group advisor for the UD delegation is Mary Kay Steinhauer of River Forest, Illinois, a junior in the School of Education. Other UD students in the delegation are: Debbie Meale, Rocky River, Ohio; Marie Antonelli, Cincinnati; Sue Tito, Chicago; and Margie Mohr, Cincinnati. Marcia Richter of Columbus, a student at Mt. St. Joseph College, will also travel with the group. Rev. Gabriel Rus of UD's Language Department has been the coordinator of tour for the University.

-30-