DAYTON, Ohio, May 9, 1968 --- Brother Elmer C. Lackner of the Public Relations Department of the University of Dayton, announced the establishment of a scholarship fund in the name of Chi Sigma Alpha Social Fraternity. Brother stated that this program, initiated by the Chi Sigma Alpha Alumni Association, marks the first time in the history of the University that a social fraternity has involved itself with the scholarship program.

A check was presented to Brother Lackner by Mr. Gerry Dempsey, president of the Chi Sigma Alpha Alumni Association. The first scholarship will be made available for the 1968 fall term. Long range plans for the scholarship fund which is a part of the Kettering Challenge, include the establishment of a working base of $10,000, to be acquired over the next five years. The scholarship will be awarded to a student who has met the qualifications set forth by the University's Scholarship Department and the Chi Sigma Alpha Scholarship Committee. The stipend to be awarded will be from $300-500 the first year and may increase each year according to the amount of funds available in the program.
