DAYTON, Ohio, May 13, 1968 --- Students bound for college and persons wishing to improve their reading speed and comprehension will be helped by two courses being offered this summer by the Continuing Education program at the University of Dayton.

"Reading Improvement" features individualized instruction to improve speed and comprehension. The sixteen session course begins on June 24 and includes classes on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday mornings each week from 8:00 to 9:15 a.m.

"Pre-College Composition" is a non-credit course designed for college-bound students to improve their writing ability and to prepare them for the English composition courses they will encounter in college. The course, which will be supervised by experienced college composition teachers, will be offered in two separate sections. The first section will meet from 9:30 to 10:45 a.m. on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday mornings beginning on June 24. The evening session, also beginning on June 24, will meet on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6:00 to 7:15 p.m. The course consists of fifteen sessions.

For further information and registration forms, contact Miss Nora Duffy, Director of Continuing Education at the University of Dayton.
