DAYTON, Ohio, January 2, 1969 --- E. F. Andrews, Vice President, Purchases, of Allegheny Ludlum Steel Corp. will be the first speaker in an evening series of six weekly seminars co-sponsored by the Purchasing Management Association of Dayton and the University of Dayton.

The seminar series begins Thursday, January 9, when Mr. Andrews will speak on "Economic Forecasts" in Kennedy Union, 5:45 to 9:00 p.m.

In 1963 Mr. Andrews received his profession's highest annual award--the J. Shipman Gold Medal--at the International Convention of Purchasing Agents in Atlantic City.

Other speakers in the evening seminar series are:

Dr. Charles Scheidler, Professor of Psychology, UD, on "Decision Making", Miriam Hall 119, January 16, 7:00 - 9:00 p.m.

Alfred Iannone, Plans & Operations Manager, IBM, New York City, on "Procurement Estimating", January 23.

James L. Bagan, Director, Personnel Development Services, Minneapolis, Minnesota, on "Don't Give Up--Wake Up!", January 30.

Ronald Criss, Manager, Systems & Programming, McCall Information Services Corp., on "Data Processing Workshop", February 1. (This is the only morning seminar, 9:00 to noon on a Saturday.)

George J. Rabstejnek, Director, Materials Management Development, Harbridge House, Boston, Massachusetts, on "Purchasing Management", February 6.

Fee for the six lectures in the seminar is $20.00 to members of PMAD and $30.00 to non-members. For further information contact Nora Duffy, Director of Continuing Education, University of Dayton, 45409, or call 461-5500, Ext. 346.
