1-14-1969

Miss Gaile Louise Meredith Placed Second in Catholic Youth of the Year Contest
DAYTON, Ohio, January 14, 1969 --- Miss Gail Louise Meredith of Washington, D.C., a freshman majoring in psychology at the University of Dayton, placed second recently in a nationwide contest to select the Catholic Youth of the Year. The contest, which was conducted by the National CYO, was won by Miss Patti Yezak, a freshman at the University of Dallas in Texas.

Miss Meredith was one of five national finalists and was chosen for her consistent efforts toward the improvement of the CYO group in Washington, D.C. A member of Black Action Through Unity (BATU) and the educational committee of the Union Activities Organization on the UD campus, Miss Meredith was president of the CYO of the Archdiocese of Washington, D.C. in 1967. She also was president of the CYO at the Academy of Notre Dame last year.

Active in the CYO since 1964, Miss Meredith was named Catholic Youth of the Year in Washington, D.C. last spring. She is active in the Dakota Street Project on Dayton's West Side and lives in the UD women's residence hall, Marycrest.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Meredith of 1746 Benning Road, N.E., in Washington, D.C.

-30-