DAYTON, Ohio, January 21, 1969 --- You don't have to travel to New York or even wait till 11:30 at night to spend an evening with NBC's "Tonight Show" man, Johnny Carson. The University of Dayton Music Department will present their version of this famous comedian Friday and Sunday evenings, January 24 and 26 at the 14th annual Red and Blue Variety Show entitled "A Night With Johnny Carson."

At 8:15 P.M. in the Kennedy Union Ball Theater, UD seniors Frank Dolan and Ken Morman will attempt to reproduce the comedy of Johnny Carson and his number two man, Ed McMahon. Their guests will include approximately 15 acts performed by UD students, ranging from pop singers and modern jazz dancers to the UD gymnastic team.

Director for "A Night with Johnny Carson" is senior Fred Ampula, aided by stage manager Jack Chapman. Mr. Charles W. Ritter, Director of the UD Marching Band, will provide the evening's musical entertainment with the help of his band members. Admission fee is $1.
