DAYTON, Ohio, June 19, 1968 — The University of Dayton, School of Education, Lecture Series will present three lectures in the Wohlleben Hall Auditorium, at 7:30 p.m. on June 24, June 27 and July 1. The lectures will be given by Very Rev. Paul Joseph Hoffer, S.M., S.T.D., Superior General of the Society of Mary in Rome, and Rev. C. Albert Koob, O. Praem, D. Ed., Executive Secretary of the National Catholic Educational Association in Washington, D.C.

The speakers are principles in the Catholic Education Workshop, "Emerging Objectives of Catholic Education," at the University of Dayton from June 21 through July 3.

Father Koob will speak on the "Emerging Objectives of Catholic Education," on June 24 while Father Hoffer will lecture on "Insights into the Elaboration of the Declaration on Christian Education of Vatican II," on June 27, and "The Specific Role of the Christian School," on July 1. Father Hoffer served as consultant to the Commission on Christian Education of Vatican II.

Other lectures in the workshop have been opened to the public as indicated on the enclosed lists.
