9-12-1968

Seventh-Century Portuguese Sermons on Display in University of Dayton Marian Library

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/3380

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.
DAYTON, Ohio, September 12, 1968 --- The Marian Library at the University of Dayton, largest library in the world dedicated to Mary the Mother of God, has on display an exhibit of seventeenth-century Portuguese sermons. Visiting hours are 8 A.M. to 4:30 P.M., Monday through Friday. The Marian Library is the south wing of the Albert Emanuel Library. Exhibit is open to the public.

One section of the exhibit is concerned with sermons, published in the 1670s, dealing with the loneliness that Mary experienced after the Ascension of her son into heaven. Another section features sermons on the Immaculate Conception. The selection includes works by some of Portugal's most noted preachers of the 1670s.

For information call 461-5500, Ext. 261, between the above hours.

-30-