DAYTON, Ohio, September 17, 1968 --- Miss Margaret Holland, Dean of Woman at the University of Dayton, has announced the appointment of three new Assistant Dean's of Women for the 1968-69 school year. Miss Patricia V. Manos of Bellbrook, Ohio will replace Mrs. Freda Hussong who passed away in June as Assistant Dean of Women in charge of Women's Housing. Miss Mary Berthe Nason of Garden City, New York will assume a newly created position of Assistant Dean of Women in charge of Residence Hall Counseling and Miss Mary Patricia Reiling of West Lafayette, Indiana will act as Assistant Dean of Women for Women's Activities, also a new position.

Miss Manos is a 1965 graduate of Miami University, Oxford, Ohio with a Bachelor of Arts degree in History. She received her Master of Science degree in Education from the University of Dayton in 1968 and until the beginning of this year has been a teacher and counselor at West Carrollton Junior High School in West Carrollton, Ohio.

Miss Nason received her BA in History from Trinity College, Washington, D.C. and her Masters in Education from Purdue University, W. Lafayette, Ind. She also did post-graduate work at Wichita State University, Wichita, Kansas. Miss Nason was previously a graduate counselor for Women's undergraduate residence halls at Purdue University.

Miss Reiling attended the College of St. Mary of the Springs, Columbus, Ohio and graduated with a BS degree in primary education from Akron University, Akron, Ohio. She received her master's degree in Education last month from Purdue University, W. Lafayette, Ind. Miss Reiling comes to UD from Fort Island Elementary School in Akron where she was a second grade teacher.
